moments of reflection & learning

Let the children come ...

As you make a child out of modelling clay, keep a child you know in your mind's eye and be praying for him/her. Listen to God about this child. Be mindful of the inklings and hunches coming from God regarding him/her.

Reflect on Mark 10:13-16

Use the photo below as a guide to the style of people we are after. Try to keep them to a thumb size. Take your time. Pray as you go.

As you are able, reflect on the passage below as you sculpt.

Mark 10:13-16

People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them.
When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them. (NIV)

Possibilities

- Leave your creation on the table for others to view. Don't forget to come back and collect it before you go home.
- Take a photo of your little creation/s either by itself or as part of a 'family' or 'village' . Use the photo as a reminder of your reflection ... even email it to
